PRIVACY POLICY REGARDING SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

Social Security information will only be used in the event your hire the firm to represent you in your legal matter, and then only when necessary and in limited use during the course of your matter.

- Social Security Numbers are collected by the law firm from the client and all clients provide such information to the firm in writing.
- Social Security Numbers are most often used to positively identify the parties. Some uses may include: initial service, orders in court, for use in pleadings, filing with the court, or to request records from your doctor or employer.
- Most courts require Social Security Numbers of all parties.
- The employees of Drinkwater & Goldstein, LLP will have access to this information for use in your matter.
- Every step is taken to protect your privacy. This information is kept secure within the offices of the firm, and following the conclusion of your matter, files will eventually be shredded after the time designated by the State Bar requirement for maintaining the records has expired. Social Security Numbers are also kept in firm software and electronic documents that are password protected on our secured server.

I acknowledge that I have read the above privacy information provided by Drinkwater & Goldstein, LLP regarding the use of my Social Security Number.
